

SIETAR Japan Journal (Issue #12) Call for Papers

We would like to announce a call for papers for the 12th issue of the Journal of Intercultural Communication to SIETAR Japan members. To submit a paper, please fill in the application form below and send it to Journal Committee Co-Director Robin Sakamoto by July 31, 2008. Completed papers must be received no later than September 20th, 2008. We strongly encourage you to take this opportunity to submit your research results.

Please note the following instructions when submitting the paper (detailed guidelines can be found at the back of Issue 11 of the Journal and will be mailed to applicants in August).

1. Manuscripts may be submitted by all members of SIETAR Japan. Both the author and any coauthor(s) must be members at the time the application to submit a paper is made.
2. Manuscripts (Research articles or Reports on field work or practice) must be original works of the author(s) and not have been previously published elsewhere.
3. Manuscripts must be written in either English OR Japanese. Papers written in English should be typed with 12-point font and double-spaced on A4-size paper with 3 cm top and side margins, 4 cm bottom margin. This is 24 lines of text per page. The maximum length of the manuscript is 20 pages including abstract, pictures, figures, tables, references, and so on. An abstract no longer than 350 words must be submitted in English. Three keywords should be designated below the abstract.
4. For general guidelines on appropriate style and format, please refer to the latest edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. For specific examples, please refer to the guidelines in the Journal of Intercultural Communication, Issue 11.
5. Address all questions to the Co-Directors of the journal, and for those who submit a paper in English please send your application form either by postal mail or fax to:
Robin Sakamoto Rikkyo University, Language Center
