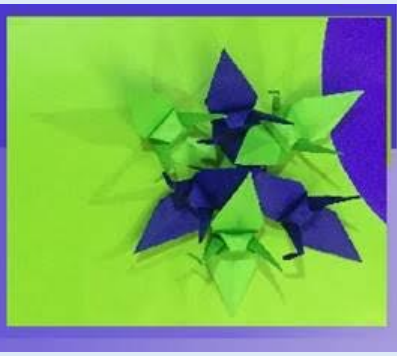
Upcoming Program
プログラムのご案内

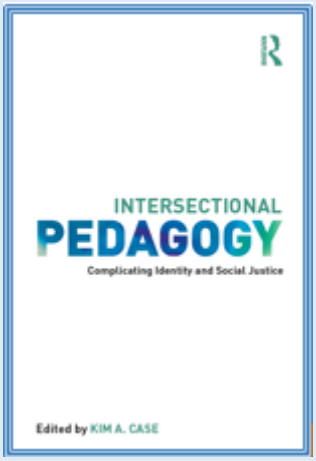
SIETARJAPAN
SOCIETY FOR INTERCULTURAL EDUCATION TRAINING AND RESEARCH
異文化コミュニケーション学会



Building Privilege and Intersectionality into the Curriculum— A Conversation with Dr. Kim A. Case

Professor of Psychology, University of Houston-Clear Lake

We are pleased to invite Dr. Kim A. Case, an outstanding scholar and educator in the field of social psychology and gender studies. Dr. Case will speaking about why it is important to teach about privilege using intersectional approaches and how to infuse this perspective in the teaching of social justice.



Speaker profile: Dr. Kim A. Case is a Professor of Psychology, Director of the Applied Social Issues graduate program, Director of Undergraduate Psychology, and the Faculty Mentoring Program Chair at the University of Houston-Clear lake, Houston, Texas, USA. She is a Fellow of the American Psychological Association and of the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues. Her publications include Deconstructing Privilege: Teaching and Learning as Allies in the Classroom (2013) and Intersectional Pedagogy: Complicating Identity and Social Justice (2017).

Publications by Dr. Case

Date: Saturday, May 12, 2018

- Time: 10:00-12:00
- Location: 2-915, Sophia University, Yotsuya Campus
- Members free, non-members ¥3,000, Grad students ¥1000

Sponsored by SIETAR Japan and 基盤研究（C)マジョリティに向けた多様化社会の公正教育の在り方：複合的考察（課題番号：16K04622）